

Input or Output

Below are different computer equipment. Colour the input equipment one colour and the output equipment another colour. Colour the key to show which colours are which. If you do not have any colours then label the objects input or output.

